CCIL Announces New Executive Director

Toronto (December 1, 2021) – The Board of Directors of the Canadian Council of Independent Laboratories (CCIL) is pleased to announce that Alnoor (Al) Nathoo has been appointed Executive Director of the organization, effective December 1.

Alnoor (Al) Nathoo

Al Nathoo, P. Eng., is a materials engineering consultant with over 40 years of professional experience specializing in the evaluation of asphaltic concrete, Portland cement concrete and other construction materials.

Al has been an active participant in CCIL and previously the Canadian Testing Association (CTA). He has served on the CCIL Board of CCIL for over 20 years, including two years as President. He also served as CCIL’s Executive Director from 2017 to 2019.

Al was also Vice President and Secretary Treasurer of CCIL, Chair of the CCIL / Ministry of Transportation Ontario (MTO) Liaison Committee, and Chair of the CTA Asphalt Certification Program Administration Committee.

“On behalf of the Board of Directors, we welcome Al Nathoo back to CCIL and look forward to his leadership and guidance in the years ahead,” said CCIL President Trevor Gluck.

In accepting this position, Mr. Nathoo said: “I’m delighted to be returning to the organization that has made such a positive contribution to the growth and success of our industry, and I’m eager to help move CCIL forward as it continues its mission of championing the interests of members, promoting the highest standards, and providing advice to governments and regulators across Canada.”

About CCIL

The Canadian Council of Independent Laboratories (CCIL) is a federally incorporated, non-profit organization that represents the independent, private-sector testing laboratories in Canada. There are over 460 member facilities across the country.
